The Bedside Celebrates 100 Summers

By Bedside Staff Writer

That's right folks, we've been a Bedside fun fun fun family for 100 summer seasons. How did we do it? Drinks and golf—that's how!

We would like to take a moment to thank all of our Bedside families big and small, alive and deceased, returning and new. Without you, well, why would we even open every summer?

This Sunday we will be hosting a party in the community green celebrating 100 amazing summers. We'll be throwing a limbo party, so make sure you stretch before you come. And as always before any Bedside party, please sign the waiver that will be slipped under your door on Friday. If you don't have a pen, see Gerald at the bar.

Mrs. Kerr would like it to be noted that she thinks Mrs. Rapperson is adding ice to her drinks when she's not looking. While she thinks its very funny, she'd like it to stop, especially on Fridays so that Mrs. Kerr can have fun at movie night.

Mr. Mackeson would like to ask that the pond-side families please share the best lifevests with everyone. Please leave them out on the dock instead of in your mud rooms.

Mr. Mackeson would also like to challenge Mr. Tip to a round of nine holes some time in the next five to twenty days. There may be drinks, if Gerald would like to join.

Mrs. Willie will be starting her own secret cribbage club for secret members only. You can let her know you would like to sign up by meeting her by the pool at noon on the 18th.

We will also be hosting a funeral service for Mr. and Mrs. Millar at the party, as we know it's what they would have wanted. Mr. Millar always said he wanted his tombstone to be made out of Bedside golf balls. Gerald will do a reading of the will and will be serving Bummed Rum instead of Fun Rum.

After the funeral, we'll have a disco party, so remember your tap shoes! Thank you again for 100 amazing summers. We love you all.
