The Bedside Announces a New Pool

By Bedside Staff Writer

That's right folks, we now have a new pool on the Bedside premises. With two pools we were already doing the doggy paddle to our hearts' desires, but with three pools, you're sure to see a mambo in the water.

Remember the sinkhole from last week behind the tennis courts? Well, the Earth was kind enough to dig the hole we needed for our pool. Within a week we lined the hole with cement and filled it with the best water we could find. Plus, its heated from the natural warmth of the ground, making the pool earth friendly! (Please note this does not indicate any political stance.)

The new pool as two diving boards, a built-in radio, flamingo floats, and 40 sun chairs.

Community Notices

by Everyone

Young Mr. Rapperson would like to propose to his girlfriend, who he hopes to be the next Young Mrs. Rapperson. Next Young Mrs. Rapperson, if you accept his offer, please meet him by the new pool.

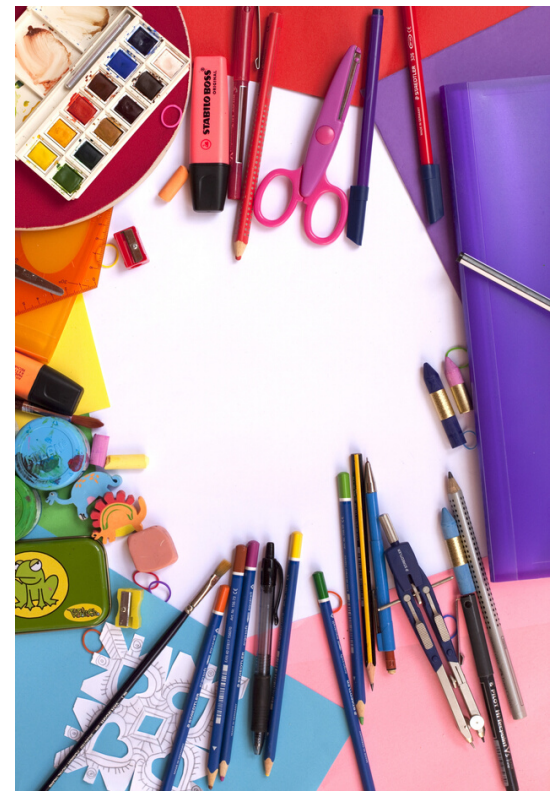

Mr. Willie would like a Jenga rematch with Mr. Tip. Mr. Willie cites that the earthquake that shook the rec center should not count as his turn and that he was not the one who make the Jenga tower fall over.

Mrs. Tupper would like to express she was disappointed no one came to her game of go-fish last Tuesday. That's all Mrs. Tupper had to say.

Mr. Opter would like to thank everyone for going to his bowls game last Tuesday. He would like to note the game made him feel "alive again" and that he "loves everyone at the Bedside like a very distant half brother."

Mrs. Opter would like to remind everyone that arts and craft safety kit night is mandatory, but if you need to miss it for a game or a pre-booked party, just ring her and she'll write "excused" next to your name.

So let's celebrate our new party destination with a splash! Come to the pool opening party on June 5th at 7:00 pm! Make sure you have some strong shoes—after Gerald's drinks, you may need the support.
